Reason

Emblem3

I'm singin' songs downtown at the corner bar
Only friend I know is this damn guitar
No woman does exist for me
No woman satisfies my needs
I cruise these streets, a must at sound
Call me up, I'm always around
Echo effects through this empty town
The radio is up, and you know that we're gonna get

Down, down, down, down, down
Down, down, down, down, down

I say "you are all I want tonight"
I say "you are all I need", yeah
My world, it turns to see your smile
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah

I said it's hard out here for you boy
I try to make money while I try to make noise
I swallow all my pride, I try to get by My talk is cheap, so my tongue is tied
I am the opposite of mellow, sippin' on a Redbull
Angel on my right, on the left is a devil.
Hello, hello, can't you hear me sing
I forgot how to speak, in the midst of all this pain
I'm walkin' through the fire, fire, fire, fire, fire
Yeah I'm walkin' through the flames
I'm walkin' through the flames

I say "you are all I want tonight"
I say "you are all I need", yeah
My world, it turns to see your smile
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah

[Instrumental]

Wake up, wake up, wake up, sleeping beauty
Open your eyes

Open your eyes

I say "you are all I want tonight"
I say "you are all I need", yeah
My world, it turns to see your smile
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah
You're giving me a reason, reason, reason, yeah
Reason, reason, reason
