Superman's Song

Crash Test Dummies

Tarzan wasn't a ladies' man He'd just come along scoop 'em up under his arm Like that, quick as a cat in the jungleBut Clark Kent, now there was a real gent He would not be caught sittin' around in no jungle scape Dumb as an ape doing nothingSuperman never made any money For saving the world from Solomon Grundy And sometimes I despair the world will never see Another man like himHey Bob, Supe had a straight job Even though he could have smashed Through any bank in the United States He had the strength, but he would notFolks said, his family were all dead Planet crumbled but Superman He forced himself to carry on Forget Krypton and keep goingSuperman never made any money For saving the world from Solomon Grundy And sometimes I despair the world will never see Another man like himTarzan was King of the Jungle And Lord over all the apes But he could hardly string together four words I Tarzan, you JaneSometimes when Supe was stopping crimes I'll bet that he was tempted To just quit and turn his back on man Join Tarzan in the forestBut he stayed in the city Kept on changing clothes In dirty old phone booths, till his work was through And nothing to do but go on homeSuperman never made any money Saving the world from Solomon Grundy And sometimes I despair, the world will never see Another man like himAnd sometimes I despair the world will never see
