

A Jar Labelled Small

Killing Heidi

There's no inspiration
Just a pale transformation in the eyes
My worst enemy is hiding at my door
And where did your wings go?
Small place as mine Well i can't catch her
Cause she's biting at my ankles
And her wings are gone forever
Have you got twenty cents to buy some more? I couldn't see, i could fall (x4) By the time you read this i'll be fast asleep
And waking all the faces growing in me
Haven't been feeling human for a while now
Little teeth getting thinner and thinner every day Well everything around me gets bigger and bigger Elevating me, it's gone too far
But i fed it twenty cents
It was my call I couldn't see, i could fall [x3]
I couldn't see... my fall [x3] Is this really what you want, is this what you planned?
Take a look inside your head and open up your hands
Did you know it would turn out this bad If you did it this way? I couldn't see, i could fall [x6]
I wouldn't know you'd go... you'd go
