It's Started

The Joy Formidable

I will change the winder after --- over here
I will never think of coming back to sky --- into
I know the fool story last, it's turn ----------out of your glass in your eyes
Tell me is this what you wanted to see?
Cause maybe it's startedWinter changed the winter, so baby you come early
I've been waiting up for the night to be conforming(?) deal you want(?)
--------harder you find number forty, even if you're harder than ----- must be floor(?)
Open your eyes ---- is this what you wanted to see? Cause baby it's started
There is no one here to over here, you can tell me what you want
I know you've done this many times, and it's only been you want
Growing up take you think you love anything at all
Cause I loved once, but it's already startedOpen your eyes and tell me is this what you saw?
And on the other side, and I fell in -----
And I can count, just turn ---- water(?)
I lie --- to be watched way cause I know where coming back(?)
Baby it's started
Baby it's started
Baby it's startedYou don't know
You don't know
