Sarah

America

Sarah, please
Where is the love you said you'd save for me?
Am I a fool to think that something's strange?
I think you've changed
Golly, dad
She was the best thing that I ever had Torn and battered now, due for repair
But she's not there
What does it matter and who really cares?
With no one to turn to when she's not there
Ah, but it's all right, I'll get by Miles apart
Left here standing with a broken heart
Call me names but I'll refuse to cry
Don't ask my why
What does it matter and who really cares?
With no one to turn to when she's not there
Ah, but it's all right, I'll get by

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/