That's What I Get

Marcia Ball

It's a heart breaking situation
I can almost feel the pain
When my loves starts to crumble in
Puts a woman under strainThat's what I get for falling in love
Trying to push and shove my way through
That's what I get for falling in love
Falling in love with youWhen the rains came, they came a little too strong
We talked too much and too long about it
But I think about you each and every day
What can I do, what can I say?That's what I get for falling in love
Trying to push and shove my way through
That's what I get for falling in love
Falling in love with youI pray to Heaven each and every day
Our love will take away restraints
But if you wanna be brave, honey, listen to this one thing
God don't wanna hear no complaintsThat's what I get for falling in love
Trying to push and shove my way through
That's what I get for falling in love
Falling in love with youIt's a heart breaking situation
I can almost feel the pain
When my loves starts to crumble
Puts a woman under strainThat's what I get for falling in love
Trying to push and shove my way through
That's what I get for falling in love
Falling in love with youThat's what I get for falling in love
Trying to push and shove my way through
That's what I get for falling in love
Falling in love with you
