Termite Song

Joseph Arthur

Couldn't make it up as we go along
I don't have any words to put into your song
Looking through the junkyard of your heart
I need to find an engine for my carDon't know where you are
Don't know where you are
When I drive
When I drive around the bend
Singing bye bye bye bye...And though I really tried, I never have been good
And for my missing heart, I carve one out of wood
Now I see the termites crawling into me
After they are finished, I wonder where you'll beI wonder where you'll be
I wonder where you'll be
When I drive
When I drive around the bend
Singing bye bye bye bye...You never have been young
You never have been sane
And if you say that you don't care,
In your eyes I see the shame
Looking through the window of your mind
I see your lonely shadow running out of timeRunning out of time
Running out of time
When I drive
Singing bye bye bye bye...
