The Struggle (RAC Mix)

Grizfolk

Brothers got room to talk
Messin' round on the block
Corner shops, stares and stops
Mother rather notYou're young enough to say what you feel
So say what you feel, say what you feel
Sometimes it's all that we got
All that we got, it's all that we got then it's goneHe turns around and sees the world he knows fall apart
The struggle you are up against makes you what you areSneakin' round through the cracks
Doubling up the stacks
He said if God lives by the gun
I'll show the world a little more loveYou're young enough to say what you feel
So say what you feel, say what you feel
Sometimes it's all that we got
All that we got, it's all that we got then it's goneHe turns around and sees the world he knows fall apart
The struggle you are up against makes you what you are
Don't turn around when you're alone running in the dark
The struggle you are up against makes you what you areHe turns around and sees the world he knows fall apart
The struggle you are up against makes you what you are
Don't turn around when you're alone running in the dark
The struggle you are up against makes you what you are
