Candlelight

Toni Braxton

Candle in night
There's a candlelight baby, ohhLonely in bed at night
And it never feels alright
I toss and turn, each night
Till the morning lightJust the thought of you
Sends chills up and down my spine
Just knowing you'll be here real soon
Makes everything alrightCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight, a special night
Seeing you is a sweet sensationMemories of you, your arm baby
Squeezing me close to your heart
But shadows in the dark, baby
Of you kissin' ever partAnd knowing we can share it all
And still be, still every
For each and every magic moment
Will last for eternityCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight, a special night
Seeing you is a sweet sensationCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight, a special night
Seeing you is a sweet sensationMy love for you will never fade away
I'll save a special spot for you baby, always
Don't you know my heart
Has made for you, special place?
Ohh, don't you know, don't you know, don't you know baby?
You call on me
When you want me
When you need me
I'm here for youCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight, a special night
Seeing you is a sweet sensationCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight, a special night
Seeing you is a sweet sensationCandlelight, it makes it special
Me and you on a rare occasion
Candlelight a special night

Seeing you is a sweet sensationCandlelight, it makes it special
