Even In Dreams

The Pains Of Being Pure At Heart

You can drive around all night with the radio on high and wonder what it's like to be liked and never feel out of time You're not the only one, you're just my only one Even in dreams I could not betray you If I could shut my eyes and disconnect my mind there's just one thought I'd think I'd think it all the time

'Cuz there's nobody like you
Is that why they don't like you?
You are cold and dead to their jokes Yeah, there's nobody like you
Is that why they don't like you like I do?
And I do
