Glass Animals

Put your hand down, boy
Welcome to my zoo
Put your head inside
My big black wild while
I can still help youSee the snake-baboon
Funky, chic and smooth
Honey can you spy
The divine ape-swine
'Cause he can see youI'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted, too
Five fingers to black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes and I can smile
I'm crooked but uprightAnd all I ever want
Is just a little love
I said in purrs under the palms
And all I ever want is breaking me apart
I said to the thing that I once wasI'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted too
Five fingers to black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes and I can smile
I'm crooked but uprightTo the left now, boy
Underneath the moon
By the thick tan sand
And the tall thin grass
One more thing for youSee the distant flume
In the sleepy dunes
Makes my nerves clench close
And my bones go cold
When I see that roomAnd all I ever want
Is just a little love
I set in birds into the pond
And all I ever want
Is breaking me apartI'm a man, I'm a twisted fool
My hands are twisted too
Five fingers, to black hooves
I'm a man, don't spin me a lie
Got toes and I can smile

I'm crooked but upright
