Fallout

Grave Digger

View your time are come
The warning from the bell
To late to run
Let's the scream coming night
In the falling of the bombs
It's the fly of the worms
When the flames burns high
That's no one to hide
Because the enemy is in sight
Now the shell burn down
Cold I will it feels
In the holy mouthFalloutNow it's time who die
Darkness turn around
Be on the wine
Day in on unbelief
Unlocked by eyes
In flying time
Once upon the fire
No is get time
Becomes in the beat
No more tears to pride
Feel in the bible
Command diesBy the flames I come
The flames in he's own
To go desecrate
There's no evil's guide
The darkness well
The god's son
But I now will flow
The running commands
But none create
But you never shall
But in nights you stay
The flame remain
