You Can Count On Me

Ben Kweller

It's a sad day 'cause all my old friends have changed
I just want you to know that I'm still the same
You can count on me
You can count on me
When you're locked up and need to be set free
You can count on me
It's a broken clock, they've got no time for you
All you need is a friend to tell secrets to
I'm here for you
You can count on me
You can count on me
When you're locked up and need to be set free
You can count on me

I've seen great people slip away right before my eyes
They're not here today
You should know that I won't disappear on you
No more barricades or walls of emotional stone
No more dead-end streets that you walk down alone
You can count on me
You can count on me
When you're locked up and need to be set free
You can count on me
When you're lost and you need new eyes to see
You can count on me
I'll help you follow through on all of your dreams
You can count on me
