

Blue Iguana

Kurtis Blow

(oh)(wooo)livin in a world of hate and corruption nobody wins
you just die of consumption of a government
they have no sentiment for you or for your kind cause its a state of mind in a tropical paradise you roll the dice and gamble (blue iguana)
sell your soul and scramble in a sauna
play it cool like a blue iguana(blue iguana) (blue iguana)now that i got this point across don't nobody get cocky and think they're the boss the boss is the president and you're a resident playin' the part of a slickster it takes a thief
and you're a trickster
i spy private eye
(blue iguana)
you're the guy who gets the money in the end only the irs will win(blue iguana)
the history of a nation the first law of nature is self-preservation (blue iguana)
survival of the fittest i mean, i ain't with this the money ain't worth it so yo, man, forget this(spanish)(blue iguana) (blue igua...blue igua...blue igua...blue igua...blue iguana...)
