

Need

Anything Box

(claude s.) All I need is under the spell of words,
Always there, trying to remind me of
What and who I am... All I need is high on the sea of stars,
Shining down, trying to remind me of What and who I am... A tear to catch when it all comes crashing
Down, a loving face that tears away
The frown, somebody who needs to Need, is all I needed... All I need plays on my soft machines,
Like a child, trying to remind me of what
And who I am... Even though I've seen the heavens fall
With the taint of every heart we tore,
In spite of the odds, my friend,
It was all I needed... All I needed... all I needed...
