

Pink Sweater Angel

Johnnie Ray, with Ray Conniff and His Orchestra

Without a halo, a harp or wings

You're such a heavenly thing
Pink sweater angel with twinklin' eyes of blue
Pink sweater angel, all my dreams are of you
I've never told you exactly how I feel
If I could hold you, you'd know my love is real
So many guys have eyes for you

Gee, what excitement you start

They just have eyes for you

I see you with my heart

Pink sweater angel, won't let you leave my sight
Until you're wearing a wedding gown of white
So many guys have eyes for you

Gee, what excitement you start

They just have eyes for you

I see you with my heart
Pink sweater angel, won't let you leave my sight

Until you're wearing a wedding gown of white

So many guys have eyes for you

Gee, what excitement you start

They just have eyes for you

I see you with my heart
Pink sweater angel, won't let you leave my sight
Until you're wearing a wedding gown of white
Oh, oh, pink sweater angel, won't you please be mine
