Remain Yer Strange

Superdrag

She once in a while
Does everything all for denial
I don't understand
Isn't it good? Hope in your handAnd I don't wanna hear about how Everything is different now
Are you ever going to change?
I hope you always remainRemain yer strange
Remain yer strangeShe's sitting at home
Says all she can over the phone
I don't wanna go
But I can't do that if she don't say noAnd I don't wanna hear about how Everything is different now
Are you ever going to change?
I hope you always remainRemain yer strange
Remain yer strangeAnd I won't ever go
I found you once you know
When all is said and done
Girl, you're the only oneRemain yer strange
Remain yer strangeRemain yer strange
Remain yer strange
