Watch 'Em Burn

Joanne Shaw Taylor

I never knew that words could hit so hard
I'm Looking for my brain
I have come so far tracking for ya
To drowning me againLooks as that I doubt my (...?)
Or where my light has been
Cause when comes my time I'm gonna shed the skin
You said I'm (...?)I hold my head high and the tides will turn
You'd be starting fire just to watch 'em burnI tried so hard just to (....?)
All the things to forget
I wore a lot on my face and I was outta your brain
Just something else to gegretI hold my head high and the tides will turn
You'd be starting fire just to watch 'em ...burn=Guitar solo-I never knew that words could hit so hard
I'm Looking for my brain
I have come so far tracking for ya
To drowning me againI hold my head high and the tides will turn
You'd be starting fire just to watch 'em burnI hold my head high and the tides will turn
You'd be starting fire just to ...watch 'em ...burn
