Mr. Music

Capdown

We fight on the back of the discontent,
Not for what you think is best.
We fight on the back of the discontent.Who'd of thought you'd listen
To the things we've got to say.
And who'd have thought that we'd still care
With the passion of yesterday.
It was you before who insisted,
That we'd all have to change.
'Cause there's no room for real conviction,
In the cool, craze, new today.But we're breakin', 'cause it's not the first time,
That we're takin', it wont be the last time,
That we're breakin', 'cause it's not the first time,
That we're takin', it wont be the last time.We fight on the back of the discontent,
Not for what you think is best.
We fight on the back of the discontent,
We're fighting over...We're fighting for everything,
Everything we got to say.
And our past songs,
Are still everything we are today.Let's go!
It's everything we are today.Who'd of thought you'd listen
To the things we've got to say.
And who'd have thought that we'd still care
With the passion of yesterday.
It was you before who insisted,
That we'd all have to change.
'Cause there's no room for real convictions,
In the cool, craze, new today.'Cause we're breakin', and it's not the first time,
And we're takin', it wont be the last time,
That we're breakin', 'cause it's not the first time,
That we're takin', it wont be the last time.Mr. Music.
'Cause it's not the last time.
