

Agenda (feat. Mike Portnoy)

Neal Morse

Agenda my beautiful agenda
The one that never dies
I'll shout it in the megaphone
I'll wear it like a French cologne
I'll scream it in the telephone
Hey hey yeah Agenda my beautiful agenda
To give it all away is shocking as a shooting star
It's cranking like a cable car
It's sweeter than the cookie jar Hey hey Joe
There's a place I know
Where the grace won't go away
And everything is fine in the summertime
And the battle lines are grey Remember my beautiful agenda
I'll sing it to the skies
And it throws you like a boomerang
It frees you from the Chanyang
It's every song you ever sang Hey hey Joe
There's a place I know
Where the grace won't go away
And everything is fine in the summertime
And the battle lines are grey Agenda my beautiful agenda Agenda my beautiful agenda
The one that never dies
I'll shout it in the megaphone
I'll wear it like a French cologne
I'll scream it in the telephone
Hey hey yeah Hey hey Joe
There's a place I know
Where the grace won't go away
And everything is fine in the summertime
And the battle lines are grey Agenda my beautiful agenda
The one that never dies
Agenda my beautiful agenda
