

Rescue Me

Erasure

Love is cast ornately in your heart flame
Chakra wheels are turning like a love train I could pray a hundred times
Keep these demons from my mind
Yeh I could pray a thousand times
Stay in your lovin' arms entwined Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Drivin' the pain right through to my heart
Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Ridin' the pain like a fool in the dark We shall blur the lines of definition
Waves of love our only ammunition Tear my head out from the sound
Throw myself upon the ground
Take me to the burning tree
It has this strange effect on me Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Drivin' the pain right through to my heart
Oh that I should be ever so lonely
Ridin' the pain like a fool in the dark Fascination never tasted sweeter
My desire real and soaring freely You alone can save my soul
You alone are my salvation
You alone can make me whole
Rescue me from condemnation
