What If I'm The One

Charlie Wilson

What if I'm the one?
You know I need you baby
Let's do this thing
What if you thought too much and missed out on your blessings girl?
What if you had your chance and you let it pass?
What if you lived your whole life and your heart never knew?
What it felt like to be loved, loved?
Could you deal with it? Could you live with yourself?
If you made a decision that was all wrong?
And I was long gone?
And what if you were blind and couldn't see that it was me?
What if I'm the one to wife you like you're supposed to be?
What if I'm the one to cop you that ten carat ring?
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better if I was just with you
What if I'm the one, you should be making babies with?
I know you're the one 'cause I don't mind you spending all my chips
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better if I'm the one for you
Just think what if you had someone who unconditionally loved you girl
And you slipped on him and let him pass
What if God gave you what you prayed for but you didn't receive it
'Cause you didn't believe it? No
What if you never had no one to make love with all in the kitchen
And you missed him?
Girl, what if you had the house and a car and the kids and the dog?
What if everything you wanted, you could have it all?
What if I'm the one to wife you like you're supposed to be?
What if I'm the one to cop you that ten carat ring?
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better if I was just with you

What if I'm the one, you should be making babies with?
I know you're the one 'cause I don't mind you spending all my chips
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better, I'm the one for you
And baby right now is the time for you to make up your mind
'Cause tomorrow's not promised to nobody
And baby I'm convinced, it's no coincidence

But me you want as one if I can, yeah
Girl, let me be the one to make your name Mrs. Wilson
If you want it, you can have it, come and get it
Girl, let me be the one to break you off and get your head sprung
If you want it, you can have it, come and get it
Girl, let me be the one to lay you down and get you naked
If you want it, you can have it, come and get it
Baby girl, don't make me wait no more, I just can't take it
Girl, I just can't take it, yeah
What if I'm the one to wife you like you're supposed to be?
What if I'm the one to cop you that ten carat ring?
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better if I was just with you
What if I'm the one, you should be making babies with?
I know you're the one 'cause I don't mind you spending all my chips
What if it's me that's supposed to be with you baby?
Forever would be better, I'm the one for you
Girl, let me be the one to make your name Mrs. Wilson
What if I'm the one?
Girl, let me be the one to make your name Mrs. Wilson
I'm the one for you
Girl, let me be the one to make your name Mrs. Wilson
What if I'm the one?
Girl, let me be the one to make your name Mrs. Wilson
