Sunshine

Traci Lords

You're sunshine, coursing through my veins
Like acid, digging its own lane
You consume me, I don't even fightOh, I feel intoxicated
Stumbling, drunk, yeah, I'm so in love
Time swayed it, beware I biteI feel sublime, then I lose ground
Tripping on words that have no sound of love
I climb higher and I lose my grip
I'm in heaven and then I choose to slip aboveControl, I say, "Fuck, control"Sugar on my lips
Funny the way you move them hips
Ecstasy taking hold of meUnlock the fire, feel my heat
Dig my desire bittersweet
Come with me play in the sunshineI feel sublime, then I lose ground
Tripping on words that have no sound of love
I climb higher and I lose my grip
I'm in heaven and then I choose to slip aboveControl, I say, "Fuck, control"Liquidambar flowing over me
The sea and the mountains crossing me
I am the sun, the wind and sound
I am the ocean, I am everything, everything all around
I am the sunshineI feel sublime, then I lose ground
Tripping on words that have no sound of love
I climb higher and I lose my grip
I'm in heaven and then I choose to slip aboveControl, I say, "Fuck, control"
