White Magic

Cage

From days of Salem when the craft became alive
The Wicken way has seen the congregation thrive
The moon and Goddess of the earth a solemn face
But soon they sought such power from a darker placeBeguiled trapped under their spell
Repent be tried be sent to hell
Tied to the cross the witches
Will burn alive on this nightWhite white magic
Turning to black
White magic
Turning to blackThe Cauldron curses those the witches do despise
They will fall victim to their wretched evil eyes
The coven instigates the Equinoxal fire witness
Deliverance to all that they desireBeguiled trapped under their spell
Repent be tried be sent to hell
Tied to the cross the witches
Will burn alive on this nightWhite white magic
Turning to black
White magic
Turning to blackWhite magic
Turning to black
White magic
Turning to blackThey're turning to blackBeguiled trapped under their spell
Repent be tried be sent to hell
Tied to the cross the witches
Will burn alive on this nightWhite white magic
Turning to black
White magic
Turning to blackWhite magic
Turning to black
White magic
Turning to blackThey're turning to black
