No Other Name

Brent Anderson

Teach my eyes to recognize You
Teach my lips to glorify You
Guide my feet so I can find You
Wherever You are

Be my way, I'm lost without You
Be my light, shining through my every breath
My every move till every thought is You

One day, every knee will bow
To the God of glory
The Lord most Holy Emmanuel

Giver of life, light of the world
And there's no other name
Worthy of praise but Yours

Teach my eyes to recognize You
Teach my lips to glorify You
Guide my feet so I can find You
Wherever You are

One day every knee will bow
And one day every tongue will confess
You're the God of glory
The Lord most Holy Emmanuel

Giver of life, light of the world
There's no other name
Worthy of praise but Yours

Jesus, there's no other name
But Yours, Jesus

You're the God of glory
The Lord most Holy Emmanuel
God of glory
The Lord most Holy Emmanuel

Giver of life, light of the world

And there's no other name
Worthy of praise

Oh, there's no other name
Worthy of praise but Yours
There's no other name but Yours
