Saved By Strangers

Die Mannequin

You've got your wish tonight
Crosses to crucify
Big eyes, hot crimes
Undressed, the best of timesCommit your sister, fisted foes
Pull the trigger, let them know
Killed myself, I killed us both
And I'm happy to be thereI need it, I need it, I need it, I need it
I need, I need, I need it
Until I want itI want it, I want it, I want it
I want, I want, I want it
Until I need it
I need it, I need it, I need itWelcome to waste your life
My vulgar valentine
Cute crime, blond highs
You're fucked, the best of timesThen lift your heels and drown the pose
Bend you over just to know
Gorgeous whisper, pretty ghost
I'm happy to be thereI need it, I need it, I need it, I need it
I need, I need, I need it
Until I want itI want it, I want it, I want it
I want, I want, I want it
Until I need it
I need it, I need it, I need itIt's time to live with what you've done
It's time to live with what you've done
Saved by strangers, killed by ghosts, ghostsI need it, I need it, I need itI hold you close to let you go
You pull the trigger, let them know
Saved by strangers, killed by ghosts
And I am happy to be thereI need it, I need it, I need it, I need it
I need, I need, I need it
Until I want itI want it, I want it, I want it
I want, I want, I want it
I said I need it
I need it, I need it, I need it, I need it
