Stars

Joe Henry

I could have sworn this was the way when we started down
I thought we'd left a light on dear but I can't see it now
I can't even find the chance when it's right here in my way
La, la, la, la, la, laBut I remember tomorrow like it was yesterday
I remember tomorrow like it was yesterday
You called out something in your sleep, it was not my name
You startled when I pulled you close but I held you just the same
Neither of us spoke again in the dark where we lay
La, la, la, la, la, laPretending tomorrow would come like it was yesterdayThe birds have picked the blossoms, I think out of spite
The dogs have taken to the street like it was theirs by right
The clouds have drawn a curtain where the stars have gone astray
La, la, la, la, la, laThey're taking out tomorrow like it was yesterday
Taking out tomorrow like it was yesterday
Taking out tomorrow like it was yesterday
Taking out tomorrow like it was yesterdayLa, la, la, la, la, la
