

Bull Mountain Bridge

Paul Thorn

Stone Fox Dan was a Romeo man
Made a livin sellin marijuana
He went around turnin all the good lookin women on
He wore a feather in his hat and drove a big black Caddy
He was always lookin for a party
He played Big Daddy to the women when the men wasnt home
Well now, Bull Mountain Hawk was the cock of the walk
He said Stone Fox Dan needed killin
When he got to drinkin, he was meaner than a copperhead
He was leader of the clantook the law in his hands
When he caught Stone Fox with his woman
Guess whos sleepin at the bottom of the cold waterbed?
And the Hawk said, Take him on down below the Bull Mountain Bridge
Tie his hands and throw him in the river
You might as well give him his farewell party night
He said, Knock him in the headhes better off dead
Break his arms and throw him in the river
If anybody asks, just tell `em he committed suicide
And the Hawk said, Take him on down below the Bull Mountain Bridge
Tie his hands and throw him in the river
You might as well give him his farewell party night
He said, Knock him in the headhes better off dead
Break his arms and throw him in the river
If anybody asks, just tell `em he committed suicide
And the Hawk said, Take him on down below the Bull Mountain Bridge
Tie his hands and throw him in the river
You might as well give him his farewell party night
He said, Knock him in the headhes better off dead
Break his arms and throw him in the river
If anybody asks, just tell `em he committed suicide
If anybody asks, just tell `em he committed suicide
