

Brick By Brick

Katy Perry

the weight of my words are like feathers from a bird my mouth, it moves but you wont hear a thing cause Ive dug myself deep,i managed to fit both my hands and feet all my little white lies smell like a big old bucket of.. bleach in one ear and out your other so lock and key you wont open up for me

so brick by brick i am breaking through these walls oh between you and me im not giving up, im not giving up on us i guess and it feels like youre in China and i am in Peru when ever I am sleeping next to you, we can hear the crickets singing oh all throughout the night oh boy can we just get used to something so right?

and sure I confess - im a mess.. im a mess of mistakes but please count to ten before you go and throw it all away

oh between you and me

cause if you give up then what am i supposed to do? all these dreams never will come true without you

oh between you and me
im not giving up yea yea yea yea yea yea im not giving giving up im not giving giving up oh baby dont give up on this love dont give up on this love

the weight of my words are like feathers from a bird

oh between you and me

oh between you and me

oh between you and me
im not giving up yea yea yea yea yea yea
