

Disappeared

Majical Cloudz

Those that forever disappear
All I want is for you to talk to me
The way you used to do Your old hands don't touch my face
My heart moves in a new place
I am out of practice
Falling into love Remember when we used to say
I don't know and it was okay
I am going back to knowing nothing now Those that forever disappear
All I want is for you to talk to me
The way you used to do
If you won't be seen again
I hope you know you were my friend
And in my head, the world will never be
