So Fortunate

Adema

I never thought I was strong enough
To handle raising my own son
You'll feel what you've never done
I hope he'll know me when I come homeNothing's gonna change my love for you
I love my child
He's got his mother's smile
I'm so fortunate
So fortunate
Life can get tight
But I will make it right
I'm so fortunate
So fortunateOh yeah
I had to learn what meant more to me
My families became everything
I miss you more than you'll ever know
I wish that I can just leave, come homeNothing's gonna change my love for you
I love my child
He's got his mother's smile
I'm so fortunate
So fortunate
Life can get tight
But I will make it right
I'm so fortunate
So fortunate
So fortunate
