Submission

Darkane

Push the boundaries of suffering
The mind is a bottomless pit of evil desires
Designs of endless punishment
Mental suffering intentionally inflictedFor the purpose of coercing
Torture is the devastating instrument of powerStrain of cruelty
Marked by this horrid experience
Strain of cruelty
Profound malevolenceMultidimensional suffering
Leaves no part of life untouched
Waiting for someone to fall, submission
Waiting for someone to fallPain, the malignant tangible reminder
Of the trauma suffered
Waiting for someone to fall, submission
Waiting for someone to fallRecurrent nightmares creating chronic anxiety
Post traumatic stress disorder
The psychological result of this experiment
Break the spirit of dissident peoplePunish those who already are beaten down
Torture is the devastating instrument of powerStrain of cruelty
Marked by this horrid experience
Strain of cruelty
Profound malevolence
