Hunt You Down

Triggerfinger

Where did you take my baby?
Why did you take her away?
Why didn't you ask for my money?
I was surely going to payOh no, no gold can replace her
Or ease the pain in my loss
I have to retrace her, no matter the costHunt you down
Hunt you down
Hunt you down
Hunt you downShouldn't have taken my baby
Shouldn't have taken her away
Shouldn't have taken my baby
You better start to prayNow it's too late for reason
Too late for talk
I'll hunt you down and find you
My secrets will never walk
(Again and again and again)Hunt you down
Hunt you down
Hunt you down
Hunt you downHunt you down now
Hunt you down
Hunt you down
