

Rainy Days

Mandy Barnett

Rain drops falling from the sky
Tear drops falling from my eyes
Too many heartaches since you've been gone
I'm drowning in sorrow and pain
Too many memories won't leave me alone
Oh, it's raining, raining Rainy days, all I do is think of you
Skies of gray turn my world a deeper blue
With you so far away there's only rainy days Sunshine hides behind the clouds
He's feelin' blue like me
Maybe tomorrow he'll come out again
And shine down on this lonely world
I wish my sorrow would come to an end
'Cause it's raining, raining Rainy days, all I do is think of you
Skies of gray turn my world a deeper blue
With you so far away there's only rainy days Wishin' and hopin'
You'd hear my heart's callin', callin'
Tears on your picture, tears on the floor
They're fallin', fallin' Rainy days, all I do is think of you
Skies of blue turn my world a deeper blue
With you so far away there's only rainy days Rainy days, all I do is think of you
Skies of blue turn my world a deeper blue
With you so far away there's only rainy days
