Two Sides

Twenty2

Yeah
One man is black, one man is white
One works by the light of the day and the other one works at night
They both live so differently but they are so much alike
They both want the very same thing just to have a better way of life
You know you can't take sides 'cause no one's wrong or right
So don't make up you mind take another look before you decide
'Cause there are two sides to every story
Two different ways of lookin' at exactly the same thing
Two sides to every story
So don't make up your mind till you hear the story from me, you know
One nation's weak, one nation's strong
Two people side by side but they just can't get along
All war's too big oh you know no war's too small
One wants just a little piece and the other one wants it all
You know you can't take sides 'cause no one's wrong or right
So don't make up you mind take another look before you decide
'Cause there are two sides to every story
Two different ways of lookin' at exactly the same thing
Two sides to every story
So don't make up your mind till you hear the story from me
Don't make up you mind there are two sides you'll see
Yeah, so let me tell it to you straight you gotta open up your eyes
You'll see perspective's everything and you just might change your mind
Remember there are two sides to every story
Two different ways of lookin' at exactly the same thing
Two sides to every story
So don't make up your mind till you hear the story from me
There are two sides to every story
Different ways of lookin' at exactly the same thing
Two sides to every story
So don't make up your mind till you hear the story from me
Don't make up you mind there are two sides you'll see
Two sides, oh yeah
