

Crucible

Magellan

We're living proof of these uncertain times
Lost all our money and we've done our time
I've got no answers-only questions now
 No point in starting over
Does no good anyhow.I'm not a critic and I'm not a friend
 Coming to terms or coming to an end?
 Another test of wills could bring us down
I sense a confrontation in the way we soundI hate to say I told you so-
 Before you never listened to a word
 But you remembered everything went wrong
 So well.....so well.
 Now I can't leave and I can't stay
 But I regret our moments everyday - don't you?
 I heard you say this once before:
"you are my crucible".Now don't be angry at the world - it's you
 That comes between us and I know you know it too
 We're living proof of these uncertain lines
 No point in going back
 We tried - we had enough time.....
