Save the World

Rufio

Save The Worldyou pull me by the arm one way to see tell me what to believe you tell me there is only one way whatever faith you chooce how can i be saved while being forced to believe believe.may not be for me one by one lets save the world conform if they must well make them believe well make them believe its whats always been told dont question the thought lets save the worldso spread the word and tell me of good news that if i act right i can be like you and think for yourself and ill do just that well to live is to learn i dont need your help

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/