Son of God

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've been here forever in the cold
Waiting in the weather, while you
Go out searching for our gold
But nothing lasts forever I've been told
Nothing lasts forever, oh
But some of this shit's gettin' pretty oldOh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Come down and tell me, water to my face now
Oh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Ridin' down for me on his own
Oh oh oh, then I'd be good, then I'd be good
I swear I'd be goodStill you don't believe me
As if I would be lyin', as if I were a suspect
As if I were not crying, as if I was not forgiven
For my sins, as if the mirror's broken
And I would get no chance on that side againOh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Come down and tell me, water to my face now
Oh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Ridin' down for me on his own
Oh oh oh, then I'd be good, then I'd be good
I swear I'd be goodSoftly and so sweetly, whisper near Softly and so sweetly, because you never know when it's gon' off over here
Well, if you're gonna shake me, say my name
And if you're gonna blame me, well then, lay the blame baby
Lay the blameOh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Come down and tell me, water to my face now
Oh oh oh, if there's Son Of God
Ridin' down for me on his own
Oh oh oh, then I'd be good, then I'd be good
I swear I'd be good
