

Such A Good Boy

Carly Simon

He asks her for permission
To take the car, light his cigar
Play his guitar, burn down the barn
He asks her for permission
To tie his shoes to take a snooze
To read the news, to sing the blues
He's such a good boy
A real mamas boy
She treats him like a toy
He's such a good boy
He's such a good boy
A real mamas boy
She treats him like a toy
He's such a good boy
He asks her for permission
To get a tan, to play his hand
To blow a grand, to be a man
He asks her for permission
To say goodnight, to see snow white
To watch the fight 'cause she's always right
He's such a good boy
A real mamas boy
She treats him like a toy
He's such a good boy
She points her finger and waves her hand
And acts just like a queen bee but he's foolin' her
'Cause he doesn't ask her for permission
When he comes to see me
He's such a good boy
A real mamas boy
He's such a good boy
