The Swon Brothers

V1
Her lips are a shade of red
Never seen her but you never forget
Every single thing she says, just keeps you hangin' on She's a phone stuck in your head
The cold on your pillow the warm in your bed
Once you get her you never wanna let her goChorus
'cause she ain't just another night, just another kiss, just another line, just another, just a good time, she ain't just another girl
She ain't another set of blue eyes, she ain't another pretty smile, she ain't just another drunk time, she ain't just another girlV2
Walks in, steals the show like a modern day Marlin Monroe"
Funny thing is, she don't even know it
If you find a keeper then keep her, like damn boy don't leave her love her like you are always gonna need her, make her a believer yeahChorus
'cause she ain't just another night, just another kiss, just another line, just another, just a good time, she ain't just another girl
She ain't another set of blue eyes, she ain't another pretty smile, she ain't just another drunk time, she ain't just another girl
