

Fool's Gold (R!Ot Remix)

Aaron Carter

She livin' in this lie with him
No more coffee in the morning
I'm wide awake while he sleeping in
Know that's why your calling You woke up chasing feelings, healing, trouble dealing
Coping with the fact that your alone It makes you miss my body
Touchin, kissin, squeezing
He don't know you're worth your weight in gold Look at you fallin'
Do you even know what your fallin' for?
Cause I see you fallin'
You traded my heart for some fools gold Cant think about your nights with him
Wearing nothing but the moonlight
Feel your conscious stepping in
Uber to my house but I don't need this pressure
You're my greatest stressor
Panties on my bed, where they come from? Show up uninvited
Fuckin' up my vibes with
All the shit you pretend you want Look at you fallin'
Do you even know what your fallin' for?
Cause I see you fallin'
You traded my heart for some fools gold
