Chris Drives Me Home

Whatever It Takes

Wake up every morning everyday
To the same sad face
No sleep for me
No sleep for meMourning everydayAnd I find it
Yeah I find it
So hard
To move on to better things
You find it
So fittingAnd just maybe
One morning won't be so mournful
That morning I'll call a start
A start of better daysDay one of my new house,
New job,
New car dreamI woke up dreading morning
To realize that it's no dreamWake up every morning
Every dayThanks to a scar in the sky (rhyno786@hotmail.com) for these lyrics
