

New Direction

Echo & The Bunnymen

Out on a limb
Did you see what the cat dragged in?
Take it on the chin
Catching fire on a roof of tin You've learnt to speak and you're professing
The right to teach us our direction
But I found out on close inspection
True imperfection I'm looking for a new direction
Where in the world am I?
I took the word the word was resurrection
And then you took me out to climb Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Kissing the spires Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Souls on fire Inside of my head
I heard what the good Lord said
"Beware", he said
"If you don't, you might end up dead" You suck the air right out of me
Though you suck you cannot see
That life and living is not free
Though you live, you do not breathe I'm looking for a new direction
Where in the world am I?
I took the word the word was resurrection
And then you took me out to climb Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Kissing the spires Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Souls on fire I have changed
But still my heart remains intact
And true love stays
But will our hearts retain their lack of? No sense and no direction
Who in the world am I?
I took the word the word was resurrection
Then you took me out to climb Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher

Kissing the spires Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Higher and higher
Souls on fire Start confessing
Start confessing All my evils would be blessed
If to God I did confess
Wipe the slate and see if I
Ate the bread and drank the wine
So as you're leaving I will take possession
