

Sea to Land

Forest City Lovers

In the dark we have no bodies
we have no worries
we have no limbs
Faceless secretes, that we embody no need to worry about spilled milk
Oh come away now
Lets get you save now.
Lets get you save now
Oh come away.
In the dark callous footsteps
Tread thin waters sea to land
Empty head known to progression
Or the suggestion of an outstretched hand
Oh come away now
Lets get you save now.
Lets get you save now, oh come away.
