

Repent to Die

Deicide

Pathetic lives, every second someone dies

Delightful is the sight of repentence

No destiny, just a certainty of death

In pain inducing lies of salvation

Never repent

Born to be dead

Repent to die

Ignorance looms in the unconscious mind

Born to be dead

Repent to die

Waste your last breath on the lord Jesus Christ

Repent to die

Afraid of what lies after death

Your screams are unheard to Him

Resisting your wake of adorn

Your pleading falls deaf on your lord

"Go fuck your god" will be my final words

To die is just the concept of living

To be Forgave, salvation blessed with pain

Endeavored is the blame of creation

Pathetic lives, every second someone dies

Delightful is the sight of repentence

No destiny, just a certainty of death

In pain inducing lies of salvation

Never repent
