Pine Tree Waltz

Joe K. Walsh

Well, we were waltzing that night at the Grange by the bay, My lost love, do you ever recall how the cold air crept in? We got lost in the spin, while the band played the Pine Tree Waltz.

I was only a young man - so little I knew
of a home where the heart lives - familiar and true
But as the band starts to play, I can see you that day while we danced to the Pine Tree Waltz.

I was only a young man - so little I knew
of a home where the heart lives - familiar and true
But now the band starts to play, I can see you that day while we danced to the Pine Tree Waltz.

When we danced to the Pine Tree Waltz.
