Let's Fight

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Baby, you and me been getting along for way too long
Life's been a bed of roses and sweet, sweet song
I know I should not complain, this is gonna sound insane, butLet's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff
Maybe call each other names
Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back
And I'll take all the blameLet's scream, let's shout
Make up, make out
Baby, just for tonight
Let's fightYou might think that I might think you've lost your mind
A love like the one we've got is so hard to find
But I miss those crazy nights too
I tend to agree with youLet's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff
Maybe call each other names
Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back
And I'll take all the blameLet's scream, let's shout
Make up, make out
Baby, just for tonight
Let's fight, baby let's fightDon't wanna do what we always do
Five o'clock dinner, six o'clock news
Baby, roll up your sleeves, and put up your dukesLet's fight
Baby, let's fight
(Baby, let's fight)Let's fight, let's cuss, get mad, throw stuff
Maybe call each other names
Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back
And I'll take all the blameLet's scream, let's shout
Make up, make out
Baby, just for tonight
Let's fightBaby, let's fight
(Scream and shout make up, make out)
Baby, let's fight
(Slam doors, break glass, I'll leave, come back)
Baby, let's fight
