

Angels

David Sylvian

High in the architecture
Something's moving
Unrecognisable spirit
DislocatedIt's the wrong climate
No humidity
Humming humidityIt's fate belongs to another time
Another place
Projections on fallen masonry
Ghosts of a once pagan place
Standing empty
I stand emptyDead echoes don't come back
His stopped cut out
Fuck youNothing ever happens
Unbelieving no one's receiving
A vessel filled
Held and spilled
NothingA trace from another time
Another place
It's simple
You don't exist
You can't possess me
You lose on a technicalityHigh in the architecture
Something's movingNothing
