

Bipolar

Bowling for Soup

Oh no here we go, here we go again
You were so afraid, you let me back in
Back in through a door, you had long forgot
It's resistance is shot, mine was not But I waited my complicated, overrated girl
You know that I hated, we suffocated
And overstated everything
Why can't you be bi-sexual instead of bipolar? Oh look there she goes, there she goes again
She keeps on checkin' out, checkin' out her friends
Swear you'll never know, quiet what's on her mind?
Wish she'd given in at least one time 'Cause I waited my complicated, overrated girl
You know that I hated, we suffocated
And overstated everything
Why can't you be bi-sexual instead of bipolar? Get up get up, what you doing in bed?
I think it's all in your head
Get up, get up, no don't sleep Sunday morning
And there's a whole world around you gotta let it in Especially girls, we all like the girls I waited my complicated, overrated girl
You know that I hated, we suffocated
And overstated everything
Why can't you be bi-sexual, why can't you be bi-sexual?
Why can't you be bi-sexual instead of bipolar?
