

It's Only Natural

Better Than Ezra

Girl, your daddy's knocking on your door
I hear your footsteps on the floor to me
Stumbling back to your room Pain it is a thing I can't explain
I only feel it when you go away
I'm waiting for you to return Don't fight it if it feels good
You hide it but you never should
Don't listen to the voices in your head
What are you and me but monkeys in a tree?
It's only natural, na-na-natural Hey, I know your mother's off at work
You say your daddy's such a jerk to you
Why can't they just all fade away Girl, is that the way it's going to be?
I'm only happy when you're down on me
You can be my honeybee Don't fight it if it feels good
You hide it but you never should
Don't listen to the voices in your head
What are you and me but monkeys in a tree?
It's only natural, na-na-natural Don't fight it if it feels good
You hide it but you never should
Don't listen to the voices in your head
What are you and me but monkeys in a tree?
It's only natural, it's only natural
It's only natural, na-na-natural It's only natural
It's only natural
Oh, baby it's only natural
Oh, it's only natural Is it the color of your hair?
Is it the silly way you stare? It's only natural
It's only natural
It's only natural
It's only natural Don't fight it girl
Don't fight it girl
Don't fight it girl
Don't fight it girl
